Who We Are

DREAM is based at the National Center for College Students with Disabilities at AHEAD. We're a student-led organization connecting students across the country, while working for change on our home campuses and in higher education. You can reach out to us once, or you can get involved in activities, our conference, or our board. And nondisabled allies are welcome, too!

What We Offer

Here's what we can offer you:

- ◆ Confidential help finding resources for questions or problems related to disability and college
- ◆ A Disabled and Proud national conference (held every two years)
- ◆ The DREAM weekly e-mail newsletter on current events and news related to disability and higher ed
- ◆ Current lists of campus organizations focused on disability, ASL, and Deaf culture
- ◆ Monthly mentoring sessions for students
- ◆ "Disability care packages" of materials to keep you going and give you a study break
