

A Story About Me

This is designed to be a story to your peers and the special people in your "Support Circle" that you have invited. The format below is a guideline for you as you prepare your five-minute talk. You may bring objects/materials from the program that you have completed during the course of the program to illustrate what you have learned.

You may want to make something (such as a poster or a drawing like the "mind map" below) to illustrate what you have learned. This is your chance to tell about yourself, so design it in whatever way best describes you and what you have learned.

- I would like to introduce myself: (your name)
- The goal I set for myself the first day of the program was:
- My plans for next year are: (Tell what school you will go to, what year in school you will be, if not in school, what type of work you will do, where, etc.)
- During this program, I have learned that my strongest learning style is:
- I have learned strategies to use my learning style to help me like: (Give an example of how you can use your learning style to help you study more efficiently)
- The career(s) I am most interested in right now is (are): (Explain why you are interested in the career based on what you have learned about your learning style and your interest searches.)
- I know that I can get the most help in planning my future from: (Name specific people like family, teachers, or counselors)

- What's most important to me in life right now is: (Be honest if it is a certain person or school or children and explain how they are part of your decision-making.)
- The most important person (people) in my life and in my community is (are): (Explain who and why.)
- After this program, I plan to use what I have learned about myself in the following way(s):
- What I learned about myself in this program is:
- The most important part of this program for me was:
- Other comments you want to add:
- Notes to yourself about your presentation:
